

SHE SLEW THE KIDS

Awful Crime by a New Jersey Dutchwoman.

CHOKED THREE TO DEATH

Her Own Son and Two of Her Neighbors—She Confesses to the Killing.

BORNDEN, N. J., Sept. 27.—A German woman named Lena Schmidt, murdered three children, ranging from one to three years old, at her residence, No. 4 Chestnut street, by choking them to death.

One of the victims was her own son and the other two were sons of William Bowker, a neighbor. After killing the children the woman, who is believed to be insane, went to City Marshal Jones and told him that she would find three dead bodies at her house. She admitted to the killing, but could not give any reason for the act. Mrs. Schmidt was locked up by the police, and the coroner and county physician took charge of the victims. The crime has caused much excitement in this place and the house is surrounded by an excited crowd of men, women and children.

BATTLE CREEK MASS MEETING

Called by the Mayor to Adopt Measures of Protection.

BATTLE CREEK, Sept. 27.—The sentiment that the recent disastrous fire which destroyed the school furniture factory plant here, was of incendiary origin, has increased to such an extent that the mayor issued a proclamation calling a mass meeting to discuss the welfare of the city. In response over 3,000 people assembled in the republican wigwag last night, where speeches were made by a dozen or more representative citizens and a number of resolutions were unanimously adopted extending the sympathy of all citizens to the fire sufferers; offering them aid and stockholders encouragement; and all stockholders deploring the course pursued by a local daily paper and demanding a public press that would stand by our manufacturing institutions.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE

Wm. T. Stratton of Detroit, Drove the Family Out and Shot Himself.

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—The large frame building at 1200 Field avenue was the scene this afternoon of the most sensational suicide. The self-destructor was William T. Stratton, 77 years of age, and a moulder by trade. For some time he has been troubled with a disease of the brain and at times became violent and threatened his relatives with death. Finally he began to quarrel with a revolver he drove his aged mother and grandfather from the house and locked himself inside. The police were notified and four officers surrounded the house and attempted to gain an entrance. They worked for some time and finally began to pry open a rear window. The next moment a shot was heard, and when several minutes later the officers entered the house they found young Stratton dead on the floor of the bath room.

FIVE YOUNG MEN FIRED

From the Lutheran Church for Being Members of a Secret Society.

ST. CLAIR, Sept. 27.—The Lutheran church of this place about one year ago adopted a rule prohibiting any member of the church belonging to any secret society. One member at the time belonged to the Knights of Pythias and four have since joined that organization. For this cause the five were arraigned in the church Sunday and their excommunication to the church was demanded. As the young gentlemen declined to withdraw from the society they were stricken from the membership.

Gasoline Explosion

ROB RAPIDS, Sept. 27.—Last night Robert Blakely, a clerk at Well's hardware store, drew from an outdoor tank some gasoline. Lighting a match to see if his measure was full, he was immediately enveloped in flames. He rushed through the alley fairly ablaze, and by the time assistance put out the fire, he was terribly burned about the face, head and arms. The fire department was called out and prevented the big boiler tank from exploding.

They Want $20,000

JACKSON, Sept. 27.—Jackson's literary and art-loving women want $20,000. They propose to have it sooner or later. When they get it they will erect a building for art and literature. They now own the ground it is to stand on, which they paid $2,000 for. They propose to take in the money by a series of concerts and fairs.

OPENING AT TERRE HAUTE

Entries include 111 flyers from 2300 Down to Nancy Hanks, 203-4.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 27.—The fall meeting of the Terre Haute Trotting association, the final one of the middle and northern states, opened today. The track record was then when Winslow Wilkes paced the third heat in the 2:15 pace in the same time made by Hal Pointer two years ago in his race with B. B. Adams and other good ones, a record that stood for more than a year. The figures show that the horses now assembled to engage in this week's races include more horses below 2:20, or 2:15, or 2:12 than were ever assembled at one race track before this date. In the classes of 2:20 and down to Nancy Hanks, 2:03, there are actually entered 124 trotters. The favorites, Gold Coin and Prince Herschel, not being in it. Herschel proved a bad actor today and was not in the fight.
